In return for their subscriptions members receive MIND gratis and post free, and (if of 3 years' standing) are entitled to buy back numbers of both the Old and the New Series at half-price.

The Hon. Secretary of the Association is Mr. KARL BRITTON, University College, Swansea.

Members resident in U.S.A. may pay the subscription ($4) to the Hon. Assistant-Treasurer, Prof. B. Blanshard, Dept. of Phil., Yale University, New Haven, Conn.

TESTIMONIAL TO PROFESSOR G. E. MOORE

To mark Professor G. E. Moore's retirement at the end of 1947 from the Editorship of MIND (the post which he occupied with such distinction for twenty-seven years), members of the Mind Association were invited to contribute towards a testimonial. A total of just over £100 was sent in, and it was hoped to make a formal presentation during the Joint Session of the Aristotelian Society and the Mind Association at Durham last July. Much to everybody's regret, the state of Professor Moore's health prevented him from travelling to Durham, and the presentation had to be made privately beforehand. The President of the Association, Professor W. H. F. Barnes, announced the result of the testimonial appeal at the Joint Session, and read a letter from Professor Moore asking for his thanks to be conveyed to the subscribers.

With part of the money subscribed, Professor Moore has bought a magnificent seventeenth-century bureau-cabinet, inlaid with ivory figures and ornaments, and with the crest of the Dukes of Brunswick: a photograph is published in this issue. As a permanent record of the testimonial, there has been fixed in a prominent place inside the cabinet a brass plate engraved with the following inscription:

*Presented to Professor G. E. Moore
by members of the Mind Association in appreciation of his services as Editor of Mind
1920-1947*
